Portsmouth Unveils Community Program Guide

Portsmouth, VA – The Portsmouth Department of Parks, Recreation and Leisure Services, in collaboration with the Portsmouth Museums, and Portsmouth Public Libraries launched a new Community Program Guide. The new guide outlines the array of program's the city has to offer its citizens. The Community Guide provides information regarding City sponsored instructional classes, sports, excursions and special events for the entire family. Published three times a year and distributed to Portsmouth households, the guide combines the events, activities and programs from each of the three departments into one comprehensive easy to use guide.

“Our parks, libraries, museums, and community centers provide a wide variety of activities that integrate people of all ages. It is our hope this guide will encourage active participation in the multitude of programs offered throughout the city,” said Mark Furlo, Director Parks, Recreation and Leisure Services. The guide is an excellent resource for Portsmouth’s youth, families and residents.
