Bank On Hampton Roads Begins in Portsmouth Free 10-Month Program Provides Financial Coaching

(PORTSMOUTH, VA – April 9, 2018) – Tired of living paycheck to paycheck? Willing to put in the effort to get your credit rating up, increase your savings and experience a measure of financial freedom? Bank On Hampton Roads is just the ticket if you are struggling to pay bills, reduce your debt or stay on a budget. Bank On Portsmouth, the local financial wellness plan, begins Monday, April 16. The free classes begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be held at the Department of Social Services, 1701 High Street every third Monday of the month. Bank On Hampton Roads is one of more than 70 programs around the country designed to help improve financial opportunities for its participants by empowering them to take greater control over their finances.

Bank On Hampton Roads works like this: participants attend one class per month and meet with a personal financial coach. In the classes students will learn strategies for overcoming paycheck to paycheck living, discover speedy ways to reduce debt and see their savings grow. Participants meet with a financial coach and create a financial plan centered on the participant's goals and dreams. With the combination of knowledge and improved financial management techniques, students can stop living paycheck to paycheck.

The Bank On program is a unique and revealing experience. As you design a wellness plan for your finances, Bank On Hampton Roads offers the education, support and encouragement you need to launch your financial plans. In this 10-month program, participants are encouraged to take the financial challenge to:

- Increase Income
- Grow Savings
- Reduce Debt
- Build Credit Score
- Protect Assets

April classes are enrolling now. Register today at www.bankonhr.org.
