Public Safety Departments Take Delivery of New Incident Command Vehicle

(PORTSMOUTH, VA – June 26, 2019) – The Portsmouth Police and Fire departments took delivery of a new mobile Incident Command Vehicle today. The vehicle will not only be instrumental in successful operations involving police and fire responses, but can perform in disaster recovery operations, special event oversight and serve as a back-up 911 center if needed. The new mobile incident command vehicle will greatly improve overall efficiency of command and control of large incidents.
