

For Immediate Release

PORTSMOUTH COMMUNITY CONCERTS presents:

The Tidewater Concert Band Holiday Concert at Churchland High School on December 3, 2021

PORTSMOUTH, VA - The Tidewater Concert Band will perform a Holiday Concert at Churchland High School Auditorium, 4301 Cedar Lane, on Friday, December 3, 2021 at 7:30 p.m.

Blues, Broadway, and Holiday Classics.

Currently under the direction of Maestro Chris Serrano and Associate Conductor Josiah Wilson, members include volunteer musicians from every occupation including local band directors and students, and former and current military musicians. With passion and determination, these individual musicians come together to produce a fully instrumented, top-notch professional performing organization.

The 2021-2022 concert season continues with gypsy jazz crooners, Black Market Trust, on March 11th. Back by popular demand will be Sons of Serendip on April 22nd, from Season 9 of NBC-TV's America's Got Talent, and Voices of Service, another of America's Got Talent favorites, will perform May 20th. This military quartet comprised of veteran and active-duty service members uses their platform of music to increase national awareness to the struggle our country's servicemen and women, veterans, and their families endure when dealing with visible and invisible injuries.

For the remainder of the concert subscription series, cost is $68. Single adult tickets for each concert are $25 each. Concerts are free for students accompanied by an adult.

Order at www.portsmouthcommunityconcerts.com or by calling 757-686-5447. Tickets also will be available at the door and are payable by cash, check, or credit card. PayPal is accepted at our website. All concerts are held at 7:30 p.m. at Churchland High School Auditorium.

We abide by COVID-19 guidelines set forth by state, city, or school district at the time of each concert.

###

PORTSMOUTH
COMMUNITY
CONCERTS, INC.

P.O. Box 6361 ● Portsmouth, VA 23703-0361 ● 757-686-5447 ● www.portsmouthcommunityconcerts.com