The 2022 Portsmouth Restaurant Week Launches January 22

(PORTSMOUTH, VIRGINIA - January 10, 2022) - It's January and that means it's time for Portsmouth Restaurant Week. Sponsored by Portsmouth Hospitality, a destination and business management company, in partnership with the Olde Towne Business Association, and the city of Portsmouth, the 2022 Portsmouth Restaurant Week will take place January 22 - 29. Designed to draw new customers and existing ones, Portsmouth Restaurant Week is a time for the port city to show off its wide variety of gourmet specialties.

"Our local chefs are preparing menus that are guaranteed to leave you wanting more. Participating restaurants will offer special menus with options for two-course lunches at $10 or $15, and three-course dinners at $25 or $35," said Danielle Babcheck from Portsmouth Hospitality. Portsmouth Restaurant Week will give local restaurants the opportunity to impress customers with their food and service - an experience that may persuade some guests to come back and become repeat customers. Portsmouth Restaurant Week will also give participating restaurants the opportunity to boost their reputations as high-quality and fashionable restaurants in the community.

"Portsmouth offers a wide array of food options," Babcheck added. "We have American, German, Mexican, Italian, Thai, vegan, European, seafood and more. All are locally owned small businesses, some of which have been around for 20 to 30 years." Babcheck believes that Portsmouth Restaurant Week will give restaurateurs more opportunity to show off their diverse types of cuisine.

For more information on Portsmouth Restaurant Week and for the list of participating restaurants, visit <https://portsmouthhospitality.com/restaurantweek22>. The list, which already includes 18 restaurants, will be updated as more register!
